Mattapoisett's "Voice" Aims for the Top

By Anne Kakley

At first glance, you would never know that Mattapoisett resident Devon Barley is a musician on the brink of pop-stardom. You would never guess that he is so popular that he had to stop accepting Facebook friend requests and start a separate page for his thousands of fans. Devon, one of 16 finalists currently battling it out on NBC's The Voice, is about as laid-back and humble as a fellow can get.

Devon wrapped up a month-long "vacation" in his hometown this past weekend before heading back to Los Angeles for rehearsals and performances on June 4. The 19-year-old pre-med student is taking a semester break from University of Vermont to perform on The Voice, a reality show that takes four "teams" of vocalists and whittles them down through singing competitions. The four teams are headed by musical "coaches" Christina Agulera, Cee Lo Green of Gnarls Barkley, Adam Levine of Maroon 5 and country singer Blake Shelton.

A Tabor Academy graduate and a cappella singer, Devon planted his musical roots in the Tri-Town by being active in high school choruses and band, and was front man for local alt. rock band, 22 Foot Drop, who toured the local music scene in Boston and Providence. He was one of approximately 10,000 singers who auditioned for the show, and he was one of 32 people to land a spot as a Voice hopeful.

Mr. Barley's most recent Voice "sing-off" with friend and teammate Rebecca Loebe brought the house down with a dramatic rendition of Radiohead's "Creep", a song that Mr. Barley had some anxiety about performing.

On the cover: Devon Barley, Mattapoisett resident and pre-med student at University of Vermont, continues to vie for top place on NBC's The Voice. His next performance (and next chance to advance on the reality show) will be on Tuesday, June 14 at 9:00 pm on NBC. Photo by Anne Kakley.

"It's 1990s grunge – that's not my style at all," said the quiet, unassuming singer. Mr. Barley came to the Wanderer office the day before returning to L.A. to chat about his experiences on national television. He also shared a secret: his team leader, Adam Levine, originally wanted Devon and Rebecca to face-off by singing Cyndi Lauper's "True Colors".

"It just wasn't working," said 19-year-old Mr. Barley, as he reflected on rehearsing the song with his teammate, Rebecca. "I wasn't happy with the choice… I was kind of nervous about it." After realizing that the "True Colors" song wasn't right for the pair, they opted for "Creep". Although Devon still didn't like the Radiohead selection, he followed vocal advice from his vocal coach and aimed to "show and not tell" his emotions in his performance. As a result, he survived the cut and Rebecca was sent home. Their performance is available on iTunes by searching "Devon Barley".

Performance is everything on The Voice, and Devon has learned that it's make-or-break time. "You only get one shot," he said. "It's pre-recorded, but if you mess it up, that's what they air… it was hard to go up against [Rebecca]." Afraid of being considered "arrogant", Devon said that he was confident in his team's ability to out-perform on the show. "My team is really good," he said. "Even if I weren't on the team, I would say it is the strongest. I guess that's good for the team, bad for me." In upcoming weeks, he will face-off against contestants Jeff Jenkins or Javier Colon, both of which he described as having "amazing voices".

Contestant elimination is hard on everyone, Devon added. "It's kind of bittersweet to see everyone go," he said. "Someone cries pretty much every round when they see their friend go."

Due to an increase in popularity, Devon had to stop accepting friend requests from people he didn't know on Facebook. Instead, he has shifted public interest onto a fan page on Facebook. Comments include a cheering section from the Tri-Town. "Good luck From Mattapoisett! Salty the Seahorse is rooting for you," wrote one user, Lori Mello.

Though his heart remains in Mattapoisett, Devon said that he is prepared to walk away from his pre-med work and his hometown if presented a contract out in Los Angeles. The winner of The Voice will receive a professional recording contract and $100,000.

So what can loyal fans expect next? Devon can't share what the next song will be, but he could share a little more information. "It's a current song," he said. "I can tell you that… There will be about 2,000 people in the audience and three back-up singers with a full band. It's going to be over the top." Devon's next performance is scheduled for Tuesday, June 14 at 9:00 pm on NBC.

Alzheimer's Disease, or another disorienting condition, wanders off – a caregiver will rack their brains trying to locate them.

However, the Rochester Police Department is taking proactive measure to help identify and track lost individuals in a timely manner. Specifically, the department recently added a new tool to its arsenal to help locate lost individuals: LoJackSafetyNet.

"Time is extremely critical in a search... If you have [this technology], there is a really good chance of tracking them down," said Police Chief Paul Magee. Caregivers concerned about a loved one wandering off enroll them in the service. People at risk are outfitted with a SafetNet Bracelet, which emits a radio frequency signal that can detect their whereabouts – whether it be a shallow body of water, a densely wooded area, a concrete structure such as a garage, or a steel building.

According to the LoJackSafetyNet website, the bracelet can emit a signal within a range of approximately one mile for on-the-ground searches and 5-7 miles in searches by helicopter.

In the past, regional search and rescue teams were available to find lost individuals, however about three weeks ago the Rochester Police Department obtained its own searching unit equipment for the program. Also, Chief Magee received specialized training on the technology and procedures and how to communicate with individuals who have particular cognitive conditions. He soon will train the rest of the department

The LoJackSafetyNet equipment captures information on each person enrolled to increase chances of their recovery. "They all have typical patterns of where they would go depending on their condition. For example, some go a long distance, and some may go towards water," Mr. Magee said.

A number of people have been found using the technology, Chief Magee said. Rochester is not a stranger to cases of missing persons and has experienced "a number of small cases that are resolved very quickly." However, he recalled one time when the end result was fatal.

"An older gentleman got lost and was missing… he was found drowned in one of the ponds," he said.

Chief Magee also pointed about that data is shared regionally, and if someone from Rochester wanders to another part of the state or to Rhode Island or New Hampshire, they can be tracked down. He said there are numerous cases in Massachusetts of persons being safely located with help of the technology.

Murder at the MAC

By Chris Martin

Something is amiss upstairs at the Marion Art Center (MAC) this weekend and this intriguing murder mystery show will have you pondering who done it when you're not laughing out loud. The MAC's first-ever murder mystery is an adaptation of Murder At Rutherford House by Tom Chiodo and Peter DePietro. The adaptation for the MAC was written by Michael Amaral, a Music Education student at Eastern Nazarene College, who adapted, directed, played piano, and assisted with set design on his first MAC production.

As the evening opens upstairs in the Patsy Francis Gallery, private investigator Wendle Weedle takes control and leads guests through an evening full of plot twists and surprises. Mr. Weedle provides a focal point for the investigation as the debauchery continues throughout the evening. His guidance keeps guests in the know as suspicion is thrown on every member of the cast. Baroness Rutherford totes along a delightful surprise that made many in the audience look twice. Willamina, the Baroness's furry companion, a pocketbook-sized dog, is alive.

The show moves to the first floor of the MAC and as with each roving set change, more menu courses are presented. Mr. Weedle interrogates audience members as they eat, Baroness bosses them around and even makes them hand feed her. Other cast members come and go as the show blurs from a scripted stage show to an interactive experience that is as much ad-libbed mingling with guests as it is a rehearsed production. The exchanges between cast and guests are quite entertaining and show off the talent of these volunteer performers who take part in the show not for compensation but to support the art center.

The entire cast assembles on the main stage and the scripted portion of the show begins to shine. Adult humor is tastefully done. Puns abound and the cast has terrific timing in this final segment. As the tension intensifies, Mr. Weedle again takes center stage to perform his investigation and then to lead the guests through his logic to reveal the guilty. The plot twists and abundant clues are a challenge to follow, but Weedle manages to pull it together in the end.

Ruby Pinkbottom steals the show as a delightfully funny, flirtatious maid, who always seems to have a clue hiding somewhere in her costume. Ruby, played by Michelle Ouellette, brings a great deal of levity and fun to the show. Ms. Ouellette, who teaches acting part time at Bristol Community College, says the murder mystery format is a change for her. "It's a chance to have fun and relax," Ms. Ouellette said.

Tickets are available for the final showing on June 11, $30 for members and $35 for non-members. For tickets or more information about the show call the MAC at 508-748-1266.

Commission currently residing in the district," Selectman Parker said. The bylaws state that three members of the Commission must be residents of the district, she said, and the appointments were tabled until two residents of the district can be recruited for the Commission.

Town Administrator Richard LaCamera opened his report with a discussion of a host fee disagreement with SEMASS. Mr. LaCamera explained that SEMASS host fees payable to the town are indexed to the Consumer Price Index (CPI). Since the CPI was negative, SEMASS wanted a reduction in the host fee. The parties now agree that even though the CPI was negative, SEMASS cannot reduce the host fee. The Board voted to authorize Mr. LaCamera to sign an agreement resolving this issue.

Mr. LaCamera requested that the Board donate 30 student desks and 69 chairs no longer needed at the Rochester Memorial School to the Swansea School System. He also asked to board to declare cafeteria tables and kitchen equipment from the school as excess and put them up for auction. The Board voted to follow Mr. LaCamera's advice on the requests.

Mr. LaCamera announced that four or five monitoring wells would be installed around the Marion drinking water site. The well sites have been identified and approved. Marion will perform testing when the wells are complete and submit results to the DEP.

Mr. LaCamera discussed the fees for Beach stickers and transfer station stickers. Marion has increased their fees to pay for lifeguards at the beach. Mr. LaCamera has heard complaints from residents, but wants them to know, "We didn't arbitrarily increase the fees. We are still substantially less than other towns charge."

In their first appointment, the Board met with the Council on Aging to discuss Senior Day Care and the building project for the Senior Center. COA director Sharon Lally discussed a list of candidates involved with the project and recommended a slate of candidates to fill the building committee.

The Board appointed Mike Meunier, Jeff Eldridge, Naida Parker, Bill Chamberlain, Pat Ryan, Jill Bodeau, Beverly Brewer, Halima Tiffany, Pastor Leo Christian, John Cobb, and Sharon Lally to the Building Committee. Linda Cobb, Jackie Ashley, Shirley Oliver, Dot Orlowski, Yvette Vipon, Lorraine Thompson, Rose Harnden, Tina Gaudette, Ann McCrillis, and Anne Gulick were appointed to a non-voting consulting subcommittee.

Ms. Lally announced that the Building Committee has a preliminary appointment in Sagamore to view the modular construction they are considering for the

In their second appointment, the Board met with park commissioner Dave Sylvia. Mr. Sylvia presented a field use agreement for Gifford Park. Chairman Morse asked to table approval of the field use agreement because none of the selectmen had an opportunity to review the document. The agreement will be discussed on June 20 at the next Board meeting.

Mr. Sylvia requested $4,000 from the beach sticker fund be allocated for a sprinkler system for the soccer field. "Do we have a plan?" asked Selectman Morse. Mr. Sylvia said they did, but Mr. LaCamera raised concern about the amount of money in the beach sticker fund because $10,000 is allocated for the FY '12 Park Commission budget.

A debate about the nature of the beach sticker fund ensued. Mr. Sylvia said that Mr. LaCamera and the Finance Committee agreed to set up a separate revolving fund for the Park Commission. Mr. LaCamera responded, "We've never had a separate fund, not since I've been here."

Selectman Parker disagreed with Mr. LaCamera, and raised the concern that beach sticker revenue and rental fees should not be comingled. "I understand not wanting the monies to get mixed together," Selectman Parker said.

Mr. Sylvia will return in two weeks to discuss his sprinkler request. In the meantime, Mr. LaCamera said that he would investigate what must be paid to Marion and what is left in the beach sticker fund.

In their final appointment, the Board met with Conrad Bernier to discuss a Tractor Ride planned for June 25, 2011. The 15-mile ride would last about three hours and begin at 10:00 am from the Council on Aging. The ride is in memory of Joe Monteiro who worked tirelessly for the tractor shows at the Country Fair. June 25 marks the 5th anniversary of his passing.

"How many tractors?" Selectman Nunes asked. Mr. Bernier explained he hoped to have 100 tractors travelling approximately six miles per hour. The organizers will require drivers registered for the ride to be licensed drivers and travel single file throughout the

The route will take the tractors from the Council on Aging down New Bedford Road to Vaughan Hill Road, Snipatuit Road, North Avenue, Neck Road, Mendell Road, Clapp Road, Walnut Plain Road, Mary's Pond Road and Dexter's Lane returning to the Council on Aging for a cookout at the end of the ride. With assurances that Chief Magee has been consulted, the Board approved the parade.

The Board received the following correspondence:

• A letter from Hartley-Rhodes expressing concern that the removal of the Hathaway Pond Dam will reduce the groundwater level and impact their operation.

• A letter from the Department of Conservation and Recreation, Department of Fish and Game, and the Department of Environmental Protection regarding their involvement with the drawdown of the impoundment to allow for the Hathaway Pond Dam inspection.

• A letter from Richard LaCamera regarding the summer schedule for town departments. In the letter, hourly employees are given half days on Friday through the summer and asked to make up the time by working early or skipping breaks. Selectman Parker expressed concern that the residents are being asked to do more at work in this tough economy and it was "a slap in the face" for town hall to be closed on Fridays. Selectman Nunes agreed and no action was taken by the Board. Town Hall will be open on Friday afternoons this summer.

• A letter from Margorie Strutski offering her resignation from the Historic District Commission. The Board agreed to send her a letter thanking her for her service.

• A letter from the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission stating that Rochester's quota for annual liquor all licenses is 14. "Do we use all of our current licenses?" asked Selectman Parker. Selectman Morse

• A letter from Kevin Woodward from Rochester Memorial School announcing the "Miles for Memorial School Kid's Fitness Challenge". The letter indicated that children will walk, run or jog a 2-mile loop around the school and that six police officers will provide intersection control. The Board briefly discussed using the Pine Street property, but finding it unfit, the Board voted to approve the use of town roads.

Chairman Morse announced upcoming Selectmen's meetings on June 20, July 11, July 25 August 8, and August 22.

The meeting adjourned at 7:37 pm.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

Why should I bring my "inside only" cat to the vet? The cat is 10 years old, had all of its shots when it was young and seems fine.

Perhaps your cat is, in fact, fine but a second opinion by a vet is worth the cost of admission. Just as it is recommended that we humans have annual physicals to catch problems early the same is recommended for your dog, cat, bird, ferret, etc. Things that you may not notice about your cat are that it really is 5 pounds overweight and is prone to becoming a diabetic. Your cat may have painful dental disease which may make it seem older than his years and may contribute to kidney disease which will shorten his life. Your cat may have fleas, ear mites or some other parasitic problem that you may have just written off. Older cats frequently have overactive thyroid glands which may cause weight loss, heart problems, and high blood pressure. Remember that rabies shots are mandated by law for all cats and that they are only good for 1-3 years.

Town House Renovation Talks Advance

Marion Board of Selectmen

By Anne Kakley

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order by Chairman Roger Blanchette on June 7, 2011 at 7:00 pm in the Marion Town House. Also in attendance were Selectmen Jonathan Henry and Stephen Cushing, and Town Administrator Paul Dawson.

The Board reorganized, with Jonathan Henry as the new Chairman, Roger Blanchette as Vice Chairman and Stephen Cushing as Clerk. Additionally, the minutes of the March 29, April 5, April 21 and May 3 meetings were approved.

In their only appointment, the Board met with Police Chief Lincoln Miller to consider the appointment of Matthew Howarth to the Marion Police Department as a Special Police Officer. Mr. Howarth, a native of Pocasset, is a graduate from Mount Ida College in New York.

"We believe [Mr. Howarth] will be a great addition to the department," Chief Miller said, adding that the candidate had received a comprehensive background check and would be working on a part-time basis. With minimal discussion, the Board approved the appointment and welcomed Officer Howarth to Marion.

Chief Miller also asked the Board to appoint Jeffrey Habicht as a Student Officer. Mr. Habicht will be assuming a full-time vacancy on the force once he completes Police Academy, and Chief Miller called the title a "technical appointment" until Mr. Habicht was able to become a full-time officer. The Board appointed Mr. Habicht as requested.

Under Action items, the Board:

• Signed water commitments in the amounts of $825 and $550.

• Approved a one-day, all-alcohol license for the VFW 2425 for a graduation party on June 11.

• Approved a one-day, all-alcohol license for the ORR Class of 1986, for an event at the Music Hall on October 8.

• Received notification that a Silvershell Beach volleyball net had been relocated away from the food service area to prevent the possibility of sand contaminating food.

• Approved a request from Town Treasurer Gary Carreiro to carry over vacation time from FY11 to FY12.

The Board also voted to increase the membership of the Alternative Energy Committee from five members to seven. "Personally, I always look to reduce the size of these committees," said Selectman Blanchette. In this case, however, he supported the increase in membership to help with the task of considerable alternative energy research that was required for the committee.

In his Town Administrator's report, Mr. Dawson provided a brief update on the mold remediation work being completed on the Town House property, describing it as "an ongoing project". He said that the Town would be going out to bid on the work, which will include the installation of a drain around the building and catch basins in the parking lot.

He urged the Board to proceed with a long-term solution for the Town House, which has had ongoing issues with mold, energy loss, and general inefficiency. A recent "existing conditions" assessment outlined the work needed to bring the Town House up to acceptable standards. The report, prepared by the New Bedford-based firm Durland/Van Voorhis Architects, prioritized structural repairs, including: foundation re-pointing, building perimeter re-grading, gutters and downspouts reparation, window repair and insulation replacement. Other features, like air conditioning and elevators, are also being considered.

"Now would be a good time to work towards submitting an article to Town Meeting," Mr. Dawson told the Board. He said that the Community Preservation Committee (CPC) had already received one request from Bay Watch Realty for use of accrued CPC funds. If the town wanted to also apply for the Town House work, the process would have to begin and an application would have to be filed. Mr. Dawson also said that the Board would have to decide whether the town would build a new town hall or continue operating at the antique building at 2 Spring Street.

"Most people want to see the Town House right here, looking the way it does," said Selectman Blanchette, adding that although they want the same façade, they want it to function better on the inside. "We obviously don't need a building this big," he continued. "All the excess space could be used for income… the square footage is incredible and we don't need it all."

"I have to agree with you," said Selectman Cushing. "This general consensus is to save the building."

"I think this is a building of historical value," agreed Mr. Dawson.

Chairman Henry used the Fairhaven Town Hall, built by Henry Huttleston Rogers in the late 19th century, as an example of an historically-significant municipal building that had been carefully preserved by the people. "That town hall is a work of art," he said. "They've kept it in good condition. They are proud of it."

The Board agreed to start the process of forming a Building Committee for the future of the Town House. Interested candidates for the committee can forward their letters of interest to the Board of Selectmen at 2 Spring Street, Marion MA, 02738.

Also in his report, Mr. Dawson informed the Board that, "the likelihood of a [2011] fireworks celebration in Marion is marginal at best." He said that the town had not collected enough funds for the annual celebration. According to Mr. Dawson, only about $13,000 to 14,000 had been collected, and the display requires closer to $45,000 to 50,000. Mr. Dawson still encouraged donations, however, saying that checks could be made out to the Fireworks Committee and given to the Town Treasurer's office at the Town House.

June 6, at 7:00 pm in the Marion Town Hall. Also present were board members Patricia McArdle, Ted North, Sherman Briggs, Steve Gonsalves and Planning Board Secretary Terry Santos. Tom Magauran and John Sweeney were absent.

The first order of business was the opening of a Public Hearing for Cumberland Farms, 406 Wareham Street, for a request for a Special Permit to replace fuel storage tanks. Doug Troyer and Manny Paiva represented the applicant.

Mr. Troyer said that, as part of the project to build a new convenience store and gas station, they were requesting a Special Permit to remove three 8,000-gallon underground gasoline storage tanks currently at the site and replace them with two 20,000-gallon tanks.

Mr. Pavia said that the new tanks were compartmental, with each tank holding two tanks within each large one. "One will have 8,000 in diesel and 12,000 of premium gasoline. The other will have 8,000 of regular and 12,000 of mid grade gasoline," said Mr. Pavia.

The new tanks are double walled fiberglass and will be rust resistant, he said. The piping system will also be double walled, with a sensor system connected to the Cumberland Farms corporate computer system, which will monitor how much gasoline is at the station and can dispatch a driver to refill when needed. "It's a pipe within a pipe for both the fuel and vapor lines," said Mr. Pavia. An audio/visual alarm system and a spill containment area are also a part of the new tank system. "This is a state of the art system which meets or exceeds both state and federal guidelines," said Mr. Pavia.

"This is a significant upgrade to what is there now," said Mr. Pavia. Mr. Pavia said the current tanks are "1980's vintage" and are single-walled fiberglass tanks. Mr. North asked about soil testing after the tanks are removed and if any contamination is found, if Cumberland Farms has a remediation plan.

Mr. Pavia assured the board that soil testing would be done at the site, after tank removal by a third party environmental specialist who will report on any issues within the cavity prior to filling in the area. The new tanks will be located on another area on the lot, closer to Eastern Bank.

The board voted unanimously to approve the Special Permit.

When asked about the construction timeline, Mr. Pavia said that they plan to start working on the project in July or August and have it completed by November of 2011.

Next up was a continued Public Hearing for an amendment to site plan/special permit for J and W Trust, 119 Wareham Street. Mr. Ryder read a letter from the applicant Nate Canto requesting a continued hearing. The board agreed to continue the hearing to June 20, 2011 at 7:10 pm.

The plan passed 3-2, with Chairman Thomas Tucker and Karen Field against the proposal and Ronald Merlo, Robert McNamara and John Mathieu in favor of it. Mr. Mathieu, who had recused himself at a previous meeting at the request of the applicant because he was running in a Selectman race against Randall Lane abutter George Randall, was asked by applicant attorney Elizabeth Kunz to vote, now that the election was over.

The application, filed by Thomas Grondski of 25 River Road, would create a buildable lot for the applicant's daughter behind his home. Issues of frontage, road congestion and driveway accessibility from Randall Lane were the main concern of neighbors, who filled the conference room to hear the final decision.

Lawyers on both sides presented their cases as to why or why not the lot is considered buildable, with special attention to accessibility and right of way off Randall Lane necessary for the project to move forward. Atty. Kunz, representing the applicant, cited a 1926 deed that spells out easement rights that she said would access the Randall Property from an old stonewall.

Jenessa Girard-Pateakos, representing the Randall family, countered that, "a significant portion of the land is not part of the right of way. Even if [Mr. Grondski] had an easement, he'd need a further easement to get to the stone wall or through the stone wall." Randall Lane resident George Randall called the property, which he said he was born on in 1929, "a piece of my soul" that he sold with the understanding that it would not be subject to an additional buildable lot.

Mr. Randall went on to say that the right of way is only 20-feet wide, and too narrow to support an additional home. Ms. McNamara, however, pointed out that both the Fire Department and Police Department said that access road is suitable to a new project.

Another attorney, Jeff Sanders – who represented abutters Christopher and Veronica Brockwell – claimed that given the legal nature of the question surrounding the easement, that the Board should not endorse the plan. He also questioned if adequate frontage exists to approve the ANR.

Robert McNamara joked, "Here we have many attorneys who can't agree on whether the sun is out." He said that according to plans before the Board and from his research into the history of the land, the present stonewall is considered where Randall Lane is situated and allowable as a point of access.

Mr. Mathieu expanded on his thoughts as well, contending that the lot has adequate frontage, but that the "issue of the roadway [easement] is beyond our purview." However, he said all plans, which most recently were updated in 1962, delineate the locations of Randall Lane and River Road, and show the Randall property's lot line along the stonewall.

The board formally approved the plan, with the understanding that the case would be headed for the courts. "We've seen the end of this, but the attorneys haven't," said Chairman Tucker. Atty. Girard-Pateakos confirmed after the hearing that an appeal soon will be in the works.

Tabor Field Hearing Set for June 16

Marion Zoning Board of Appeals

By Laura Fedak Pedulli

The Marion Board of Appeals approved a Special Permit to allow construction of an accessory in-law apartment during its Thursday, June 2 meeting. Also, the board said that an application from Tabor Academy for extensive fieldwork and new lighting would be continued on June 16.

During the in-law apartment hearing, applicants Timothy and Michelle Crowley sought permission to construct the apartment within their home at 1026 Point Road. According to Ms. Crowley, the apartment would be 650 square feet and require no serious construction except removal of a closet in an adjacent room.

Chairman Bob Wedge explained to the applicants that the Special Permit is nontransferable if the home is later sold, and that only family members, or affordable housing occupants, can reside in the space.

Calling the case "pretty straightforward," the board unanimously approved the request.

In a short discussion, Chairman Wedge reported that the Tabor Academy application to implement significant changes to its main playing field, including new stadium seating, 90-feet high lights, and new turf – will be heard at its next meeting. Mr. Wedge said that he is meeting with Tabor Academy officials June 7 to hash out conditions surrounding an approval. He acknowledged that under state law a private school can circumvent the Planning Board given that their project is linked to an academic benefit – however, the ZBA can weigh in with their input.

According to Mr. Wedge, the board will discuss the possibility of setting a firm schedule as to when the night lights can be used, and restrict use of the field to Tabor sports or in rare cases for events that need to take

Mr. Wedge said, "Like the 40B, the law is heavily weighted on [Tabor's] side," he said, noting that many residents are unhappy about the prospect of increased lighting from the field.

A public meeting on Tabor's variance application will begin at 7:30 pm on June 16.

Retiring Marion Teachers Bid Farewell

Marion School Committee
By Laura Fedak Pedulli

At the final meeting of the school year, Brad Gordon officially took the helm as Chairman of the Marion School Committee and newcomer Michelle Ouellette was welcomed onboard. During the June 1 meeting, the board also took time to thank retiring teachers Diane Cooke and Sandra Rosen for their service at the school.

Ms. Cooke, who is known for leading community gardening classes for Sippican youngsters, reflected on her experience. "I have enjoyed my years at Sippican. I've met all types of children and parents... Children are one of my multiple vitamin sources," she said.

"In all of my experiences, you've been wonderful," said Mr. Gordon, who recalled a time when Ms. Cooke – his neighbor – engaged his children in some homemade science experiments.

Committee member Christine Winters presented Ms. Rosen with a book on the life of Amelia Earhart. "Whether it is trying to make history come alive, or make math realistic, I love doing that. I tell my kids [in math class] that each problem is a mystery and they become mystery solvers," Ms. Rosen said of her teaching style during her 24 years on staff.

In his chairperson's report, Mr. Gordon recounted the "phenomenal experience" of chaperoning the sixth grade mountain classroom experience in New Hampshire. "It was very focused in terms of instruction… Everyone had a great time and there were no behavioral problems at all. The kids took a lot away from it," he said, offering kudos to teacher Bill Roseman, who organized the trip.

State budget news shows promise that Chapter 70 funding will remain the same for next fiscal year, superintendent Doug White told the committee. He said that proposed funding remains unchanged from what the governor requested earlier this year, but it still requires senate approval to move forward. However, he said, an increase in regional transportation aid is being proposed in the budget. "Hopefully [the budget] will get passed soon," he said.

Mr. White also reported that the technology subcommittee – made up of over 18 members – has split up into two teams to research programs in other schools.

The Summer Adventures in Leaning (SAIL) program so far has enrolled 157 children for courses in enrichment, reading, math, science and inquiry, according to Elisa Frangos, the district's curriculum and instruction director. She said faculty in the SAIL program are both local and from afar. "We are excited about launching the program," she said.

Registration is officially closed, although there are still some openings. Ms. Frangos said parents or grandparents interested in enrolling their children could contact Diana Russo at 508-758-2772.

In other business, Director of Student Services Terri Hamm said training sessions for parents on bullying – which are required under the anti-bullying law passed a year ago – took place on May 18. "It was a smaller group than what we would have liked, but people asked good questions," she said, adding that Mattapoisett Police Chief Mary Lyons was on hand to contribute. Another similar meeting will be scheduled in the fall.

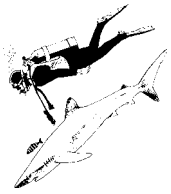

Principal Lyn Rivet said that MCAS test results are completed and mailed out, and "we couldn't have asked for better effort and focus from children taking the exam." Teachers will receive "benchmark assessments" – which give staff a view of individual progress of the children over the course of the year.

Ms. Rivet also took time to thank committee member Jay Pateakos for his efforts to have the band perform the National Anthem at the Town Meeting, and Despite efforts to improve attendance by moving professional days from Fridays to Wednesdays, Ms. Rivet reported that attendance has barely held at 96 percent so far this year. "We'll be able to squeak out for the rest of the year," she said. Overall, she said excused absences far exceeded unexcused absences. "Many [students] had several days-long vacations that had a significant impact on student attendance," she said.

The committee looked over data on food service operations, which showed that the school has incurred a $4,564 loss as of May 31. District families will see an increase of 25 cents next year to offset these losses, which are present at all elementary schools. Mr. White said that letters were sent to parents explaining the increase, which is the first one the district has implemented since 2006.

"We're not making a profit, but it's important to get as close as we can to even." Mr. Gordon remarked.

Facilities Manager Steve Murphy is busy with several projects at the school, he said, joking, "This summer I'll be vacationing at 2 Spring Street." This summer he will install new windows and a new water filtering system. The Direct Digital Control system will be installed in late June into early July, he said.

In other news, Mr. Murphy said that 16 puncture holes on the roof of Sippican School are under investigation by the school and the police. "We found some glass and some foot traffic," he said, adding that there were no workmen on the roof.

Mr. Murphy also said that he is replacing all of the schools' 32 watt light bulbs with 25 watt TA bulbs to save on energy costs – and that composting may be coming to Sippican "in the not-too-soon future."

District Business Administrator Katie Isernio informed the committee that the school rental account has a balance of $222,747, which includes encumbrance of the DDC program and circulation pump. Currently only the YMCA and St. Rita rent from the school, and Chairman Gordon put out the word that "wonderful, air-conditioned" space is available for rent at Sippican School.

the incredible academic, athletic, artistic, and musical achievements of the seniors, who have graduated from Old Rochester Regional High School this past Saturday. Principal Michael Devoll summarized the Senior Awards Night in his welcoming addressing quite well, saying, "This is by far my favorite event … It's a more intimate look at the senior class [than graduation is]." Mr. Devoll concluded his speech by saying that people often leave the Senior Awards Night thinking that "this is a pretty special group of students with diverse talents." Oh, how that statement is so true!

The evening started with recognition for the certificates of excellence in the various senior classes. These certificates of excellence go to the student with the top average in that particular class. After the certificates of excellence, one student received the department award, which recognized the student with the highest average in their classes for all four years of high school. Some departments had additional awards to present.

The first department to announce the recipients of the awards was the Classical and Modern Languages department. First, department coordinator Marcia Ross named two seniors who received awards on the prestigious National Latin Exam, which the ORR Latin students of all grades take every year. Sofia Gabriel received a silver medal and Maxima cum Laude for her work on the test, and Allison LaCrosse received Magna cum Laude. Certificates of excellence for teaching French to elementary-age students in the ORR school district went to Lilli Paknis and Michelle Sperre. Ms. Ross was also privileged to present two seniors with the Advanced Linguist award, which is not given every year. It is a difficult award to receive because to be eligible for it, students must reach the highest level available in one language, as well as take three years in another. Sofia Gabriel received the award for her studies in Latin and German, and Alexander Matathia received the award for his work in Spanish and Latin. This year, the department award for French went to Stephanie Rizzo, the Latin award went to Mary-Lee Barboza, and the Spanish award went to Dana Dourdeville.

The second department was the English department. The certificates of excellence were as follows: AP English 12, Emily Roseman and Dana Dourdeville; Creative English 12, Danielle Marston; Creative Writing II, Stephanie Rizzo; Journalism, Ben Resendes and Stephanie Rizzo; Media Literacy, Amanda Tilden; and Theater, Cody Nadeau. Four seniors placed in the annual poetry contest this year. The winners were Stephanie Rizzo, Christopher Tetreault, Cody Nadeau, and Sasha Nochimow. The department award went to Emily Roseman.

The next department to take the podium was the History and Social Sciences department. The recipient of the Charles Washburn Award was Amanda Tilden. Eight seniors received recognition for their perfect scores

To the Editor:

Summer is on the doorstep and it is time to slow down.

Speeding in the village of Marion is excessive. It is dangerous. It is annoying. I understand that the speed limit along Front Street is 25 MPH. Who knows that? Who is reminded of that?

I spend hours in my little garden in the center of town waving down passers-by while my lab, Bosun watches the ever faster traffic go by in awe.

Would all citizens of Marion please remember the 25 MPH limit, and remind all house guests and family members that we welcome them in our village too, strolling the sidewalks, biking the roadways, or driving within the posted speed limit?

And feel free to come in the garden and say "Hi" to Bosun any time.

Tinker Saltonstall

To the Editor:

I have just returned home after attending a local town's parade and felt the need to write in. I'm disappointed. Traditional observance of Memorial Day has diminished over the years. Many have forgotten the meaning of this day. Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in our nation's service. It is about reconciliation. It is about coming together to honor those who gave their all. It's not about parades, or cookouts. I stood there on the corner, with the men and woman of the Armed Forces passing by me with pride in their eyes. I couldn't help the tears begin to fill my eyes, thinking of my own family members and friends that served and were lucky to come home. That feeling soon turned to disgust, for just past these brave men and woman was a truck. From the back of this truck they were throwing candy. Candy? Really? The practice continued for the rest of the parade with other groups doing the same. I can see that at a July Fourth parade, Mardi Gras, or any type of celebration – but in a Memorial parade. Let me ask you this. Would you throw candy during a memorial service for one of your family members? We need to re-educate ourselves in the true meaning of this day. At many cemeteries the graves of the fallen are increasingly ignored and neglected. Most people today no longer remember the proper flag etiquette.

To help re-educate and remind Americans of the true meaning of Memorial Day, the "National Moment of Remembrance" resolution was passed in December 2000, which asks that at 3:00 pm local time, for all Americans "to voluntarily and informally observe in their own way a Moment of remembrance and respect, pausing from whatever they are doing for a moment of silence or listening to 'Taps'." Please take the time to remember and honor those that fought and died for the very freedom we all take for granted.

Rochester Receives Bicycle Helmet Grant

The Rochester Police Department has been awarded bicycle helmets as part of the 2011 statewide bicycle safety grant program funded by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and distributed through the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security's Highway Safety Division (EOPSS-HSD). The program will provide more than 2,900 helmets to 68 communities and organizations for free distribution this spring and summer.

"We are pleased to receive these helmets to enhance our bicycle safety efforts in Rochester," said Chief Paul H. Magee. "The helmets will be distributed at no cost in our community." They can be obtained by calling Sergeant William Chamberlain at 508-763-5112 ext. 153.

Massachusetts law requires any child 16 years of age or younger operating in-line skates, a skateboard, scooter, bicycle or other manually-propelled wheeled vehicle or riding as a passenger on any manually-propelled vehicle on a public way or bicycle path to wear a properly fitted and fastened helmet.

Bicyclists are considered vehicle operators and thus must obey the rules of the road such as traffic signs and signals. When riding in the street, bicyclists should ride in the same direction as traffic. Drivers and pedal cyclists must share the roads safely. Cyclists should wear reflective gear and ensure that they are highly visible to motorists, especially at night.

According to NHTSA, six of the 334 total traffic fatalities in Massachusetts in 2009 were pedal cyclists. Nationwide, cyclists under age 16 accounted for 13 percent of the total killed and 20 percent of all those injured in vehicular traffic crashes in 2009.

A bicycle helmet can reduce the risk of serious head and brain injury by as much as 90 percent. According to the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, 91 percent of bicyclists killed in 2008 were not wearing helmets. During this program students will be visiting the shoreline and exploring the plants and animals that live in our area's many coastal habitats. With the use of games, journals and introductory science techniques, this will be a wonderful first look at life in our coastal environment. For students entering grades 1 and 2.

• Coastal Explorations I and II – Session I: July 11 to July 22 . Session II: August 1 to August 12. The program runs from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

Experienced High School Biology teacher Nealyn Dunlop will lead the Coastal Explorations I program this summer. This program will feature explorations of our rocky intertidal shoreline, salt marshes, estuaries as well as freshwater riverbanks, swamps, ponds and bogs. Students will look at the birds, amphibians, fish and invertebrates that make these areas so special. For students entering grades 3 and 4.

Museum Director Elizabeth Leidhold will lead our Coastal Explorations II program. During this program we will further enjoy the unique habitats Marion has to offer by including several field trips to expand our knowledge of our Coastal and Freshwater ecosystems. For students entering grades 5 through 7.

At the Marion Natural History Museum, all teachers and assistants are experienced educators and/or scientists and look forward to having another fun summer exploring our natural habitats with the kids. Road in the West and Hollywoods Road in the east and between Watertower Park north of Route 6 and the Dunn Preserve in the south with access to Angelica Avenue.

The property contains a large blueberry orchard that was planted by Linda's grandparents, David and Dorothy Brownell. "There were 1500 blueberry trees there, all cultivated by my family. "We picked them ourselves and sold them to a fruit market in New Bedford," Linda recalled. The orchard has become overgrown since then, but the Land Trust hopes, with volunteer help, to clear the overgrowth and to offer the public a chance to collect and enjoy fresh blueberries. In addition, the MLT plans to extend the existing Hiller Trail through the property to Prospect Road.

The acquisition was made possible through a loan from the Buzzards Bay Lands Revolving Fund managed by the Coalition for Buzzards Bay as well as a Conservation Partnership Grant from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs. Fundraising efforts to retire the Revolving Fund loan will continue through the summer. Individuals interested in contributing can connect with the Land Trust through its website at www.MattLandTrust.org or by mail at P.O. Box 31 in Mattapoisett.

RHS Presents Keziah Parlow Randall

Lynda Ames will present "The Life of Rochester's Keziah Parlow Randall: 1791-1892" at the monthly meeting of the Rochester Historical Society on Wednesday, June 15 at 7: 00 pm at the East Congregational Church/ Museum 355 County Road. Keziah Parlow was "the prettiest gal in the village" according to many accounts. As the oldest of 11 children, she was sent from her home at Sippican Village at the age of 10 to Rochester Center where she was employed and educated through the generosity of the minister there. She enjoyed just a few short years of marriage to her husband Richard Randall before his early death following the War of 1812. Keziah found a home for herself in the remote woods of 'Poisett and there maintained herself for the duration of her life. "Aunt Keziah", beloved by all who knew her, died artist and her paintings began over forty years ago, when Mrs. Bidstrup came to Tabor with her young family and started her affiliation with the Marion Art Center. Her research on Ms. Clark Davis continued throughout her tenure at the Art Center and earned Bidstrup the title of Curator of MAC's Cecil Clark Davis Collection.

Though a spirited adventurer and sportswoman who defied the stereotype of the pampered young debutante, Cecil Clark Davis was known to the public largely because of her marriage to the dashing war correspondent and writer, Richard Harding Davis. In fact, Cecil was a strong-minded and fiercely independent young woman who had refused Richard's proposals numerous times, and the focus of Mrs. Bidstrup's program will extend beyond the celebrated marriage to the other aspects that helped define Cecil's life.

This program is offered to the public free of charge, and no reservations are required. Light refreshments will be served. For more information, please call 508-748-1116.

Editor's Pick of the Week

The Wanderer Presents the 2011 Keel Award Winners

Edited by Chris Martin

The Wanderer is pleased to announce the 2011 recipients of our eighteenth annual "Wanderer Keel Awards." This annual community service honor is presented to one resident from Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester each. It is given to those who have contributed in some way to the overall benefit of the community, either directly to town residents, or indirectly through efforts in promoting town activities, or working to keep the wheels of local government well-oiled.

In doing this each year, we hope to applaud those who are rarely recognized for their countless hours of service and focus on the many people "behind the scenes" who remain otherwise anonymous but provide crucial support to many town functions. Like the keel of a ship, which keeps the vessel from capsizing, the recipients of the Annual Wanderer Keel Award are recognized for their stalwart efforts in keeping their respective community on an "even keel." We hope you will join us in congratulating this year's recipients and celebrate their contributions to the Tri-Town communities.

• Mattapoisett Keel Award 2011 – Bento Martin, Brookside Drive

This year Bento Martin celebrates 24 years as an active member of the Mattapoisett Lions Club where he has consistently served in a wide variety programs that touch everyone in the Mattapoisett community. Mr. Martin has been a strong supporter of the Annual Turkey Dinners for Seniors program to deliver meals to homebound members of the community. He has also been a loyal volunteer at the Mattapoisett Council on Aging and the Friends of the Elderly. Mr. Martin has been instrumental in organizing the annual Blood Drive at Center School in Mattapoisett and he has been actively involved with the "Healing Little Hearts Program".

We are proud to honor Bento Martin as the 2011 Mattapoisett Keel Award winner.

Mr. Martin joins other past Mattapoisett Keel Award Winners: Maurice "Mudgie" Tavares (1994); Priscilla Alden Hathaway (1995); Norma Holt (1996); Gale Hudson (1997); Kenneth Stickney (1998); Clara Morgan (1999); Betty and Bert Theriault (2000); John N. "Jack" DeCosta (2001); Jo Pannell (2002); Stan Ellis (2003); Evelyn Pursley (2004); Luice Moncevitch (2005); Seth Mendell (2006); Bradford A. Hathaway (2007); Kim Field (2008), Dr. David Spencer Jenny (2009), Stephen L. Kelleher (2010).

• Marion Keel Award 2011 – Jane McCarthy, Harnum Way

Ten years ago, Jane McCarthy came to the Marion community with the trepidation any parent feels when transferring a child into a new school system. Her children immediately took to the Sippican School and soon Ms. McCarthy became involved as a volunteer. She took on the role of tour guide traditionally filled by the Assistant Principal and helped many families make the adjustment to their new school.

Ms. McCarthy restarted Volunteers at Sippican Elementary (VASE) and as Vice Chairman played a critical role replacing the playground in front of the school by helping to raise $65,000 in donations. For the last six years Ms. McCarthy served on the School Committee, the pinnacle of her support for Marion's elementary school. In this last year, she helped the School Committee decrease the school's budget while minimizing the impact on class sizes and student services. Through it all, she maintains her admiration for the teachers and support staff who serve Marion's children. For these reasons, we are proud to award Jane McCarthy with the 2011 Marion Keel Award.

Ms. McCarthy joins other past Marion Keel Award Winners: Claire Russell (1994); Ralph and Phyllis Washburn (1995); Annie Giberti (1996); Jay Crowley (1997); Tyler Blethen (1998); Olive E. Harris (1999, posthumously); Kathleen P. "Kay" Reis (2000); Loretta B. "Lori" Schaefer (2001); Ann and Warren Washburn (2002); Andrew Santos Sr. (2003); Eunice Manduca (2004); Annie Giberti (2005); A. Lee Hayes (2006); Horace "Hod" Kenney (2007); Margie Baldwin (2008), Jack Beck (2009), Dr. John Russell (2010).

Our seniors spent their working years building our communities, teaching our children, and mentoring a new generation of leaders. When their work is done they often need a helping hand or a willing ear. In the Tri-Town, that work is often done by caring volunteers such as John Cobb.

Seven years ago, John Cobb and his wife Linda began a program at the Rochester Senior Center called "Cobb's Lunch". The program provides a gathering place for seniors and a great lunch at a reasonable price. Mr. Cobb is also a mainstay at senior breakfasts. He is always volunteering, working behind the scenes to put in the work without looking for recognition.

Mr. Cobb has spent many years giving back to Rochester as President and District Governor of the Lions Club. Currently President of the Friends of the Rochester Senior Center, Mr. Cobb was instrumental in raising the funds to complete the recent addition to the Senior Center, which included a walk-in refrigerator. Rochester is very fortunate to have someone like John Cobb committed to giving back to the community. For these reasons, we are proud to award John Cobb the 2011 Keel Award for Rochester.

Mr. Cobb joins other past Rochester Keel Award Winners: Joseph McCarthy (1994); Jean Fennell (1995); Katherine Hartley Church (1996); Chris Byron (1997); Albert Alderson (1998); Arthur and Aline Lionberger (1999); Kenneth E. Daggett (2000); Georgia D. Chamberlain (2001); Mary P. Wynne (2002); Evelyn F. Benner (2003); Mike Meunier Sr. (2004); Arthur F. Benner (2005); Pamela J. Robinson (2006); Anna E. White (2007); John E. Lafreniere (2008), Cathy Mendoza (2009), Kate Tarleton (2010).

X-Factor

By Rob Gonsalves

X-Men: First Class. Starring James McAvoy and Michael Fassbender. Directed by Matthew Vaughn. Running time: 132 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13.

There are two major conflicts running through X-Men: First Class. One is interesting, though we've seen it before, and one is near-fatal to the film. The first conflict is the ideological loggerheads between two powerful mutants — Charles Xavier (James McAvoy), a telepath, and Erik Lehnsherr (Michael Fassbender), who can manipulate metal with his mind. Charles is aware that normal humans hate and fear mutants, but wants to help humans anyway. Erik is likewise aware, but gradually decides that he would rather not. The second conflict is one of tone. X-Men: First Class, set during the early '60s leading up to the Cuban Missile Crisis, breathes heavily about matters of major historical import — Erik as a boy survived Auschwitz — but also wants to be a poppy summer-fun blast in which mutants sprout wings or blue fur and flit around the sky like fireflies at dusk.

The result is a weird and unstable experience, and I wish I could say I gave in to the lightweight escapism. But when you present me with the Final Solution and the spectre of nuclear annihilation — which actually almost happened, with or without mutants — I have a hard time switching gears for the goofball scenes of young mutants in training, roughhousing with their budding powers. I don't mean to be a killjoy; I just mean to say that historical high seriousness and retro pulp don't blend well — you can see the seams. The first two X-Men films, directed by Bryan Singer, took themselves seriously — gloomily so, at times — but at least felt consistent. The stakes were high, and Singer, an openly gay director, plumbed the metaphor of mutants as persecuted homosexuals, but when the action beats came they felt rooted in something personal. Here, the historical import seems like a tacky backdrop for tackier action.

Charles and Erik (who will later triumphantly assume the dorky name "Magneto," snarkily given to him by Jennifer Lawrence's shape-shifting Mystique) enter into an increasingly uneasy alliance when Erik's old foe from the Auschwitz days, Sebastian Shaw (Kevin Bacon), plans to use his own mutant powers and mutant minions to provoke nuclear war between the U.S. and Russia. The resulting radiation will kill off all the humans and empower the mutants. So Charles and Erik build their own team, made up mostly of disaffected youngsters with strange powers; perhaps significantly, perhaps not, of the two mutants of color, one dies early on and one turns to evil.

Michael Fassbender emerges as a cool, 007-like presence, the only real adult in the movie; James McAvoy seems to keep himself amused. For the most part, though, the large cast gets lost in the bombast, and January Jones as Shaw's telepathic right-hand woman Emma Frost gives yet another dead-eyed performance in which she seems to be reading her lines phonetically. The director (and one of four named writers) of X-Men: First Class is credited as Matthew Vaughn, which I find hard to believe. Can this be the same man who gave us last year's sarcastic, taboo-breaking superhero satire Kick-Ass (not to mention the enchanting comedy Stardust)? This film is a complete regression for Vaughn, who seemed to be forging a career as one of the few iconoclasts working in big Hollywood movies. There's more outlaw excitement in any of Hit Girl's scenes from Kick-Ass than in all of X-Men: First Class.

Save for a few hairdos and JFK on the tube, the '60s milieu isn't very convincing; the movie itself, meanwhile, feels as though it were made in 1996 or even 1986. A lot of that is due to Henry Jackman's painfully cheesy score, but part of it is down to Matthew Vaughn's passionless, visionless direction. Vaughn was supposed to direct 2006's X-Men: The Last Stand but dropped out two weeks before filming started; did he take this movie on to prove he could've done better with the earlier film, or did he forget in the intervening five years why he'd wanted to make an X-Men film in the first place? X-Men: First Class has been getting something of a free ride from the fanboy press, who respect Vaughn for his past films and are grateful that someone tried to make a better movie than The Last Stand and the oafish Wolverine movie. But loyalty to a director and relief that a film doesn't stink on ice isn't enough reason to excuse mediocrity.

Mr. Collyer also served as harbormaster in the 1970s and was an active contributor to the Marine Advisory Board.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Lots of possibilities begin to open up by midweek. Some seem more appealing than others. But wait for more facts to emerge later on before you consider which to choose.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Bravo to the determined Bovine. While others might give up, you continue to search for answers. Expect your Taurean tenacity to begin paying off by week's end.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might want to consider stepping back from the task at hand for a while. This could help you get a better perspective on what you've done and what still needs to be done.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your keen Cancerian insight should help you determine whether a new offer is solid or just more fluff 'n' stuff. The clues are all there, waiting for you to find them.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Being ignored is difficult for any proud Leo or Leona. But pushing yourself back into the spotlight might be unwise. Instead, let things work themselves out at their own pace.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Trying to uncover a colleague's secret under the pretext of showing concern is ill-advised. Control your curiosity in order to avoid raising resentment in the workplace.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Expect to hear good news about a loved one. Also, be prepared for some changes in several family relationships that could develop from this lucky turn of events.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Some surprises are expected to accompany a number of changes that will continue through part of next week. At least one could involve a romantic situation.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You might be upset by some of your critics. But most of your associates continue to have faith in your ability to get the job done, and done well.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A workplace goal that suddenly seems out of reach is no problem for the sure-footed Goat, who moves steadily forward despite any obstacles placed in his or her way.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Uncertainty about who is right and who isn't might keep you from making a clear-cut decision. Wait until you know more about what you're being asked to decide.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Be careful to keep your emotions in check when dealing with a demanding personal situation. You need to set an example of strength for others to follow.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have an extraordinary ability to rally people to do their best. You would be a treasure as a teacher.

YMCA News and Events

• Reciprocal Memberships – Y members can now access facilities in all six New England states for free.

The Y stands for healthy living and to make sure all members continue to be involved wherever they may travel, Ys across New England have joined together to offer reciprocal membership through their "My Y is Every Y" program.

The program, which began on June 1, allows Y members in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont to access all YMCAs in these states at no charge when they present a valid Y ID card.

"Our members count on their local Ys here along the Southcoast for their health and wellness needs. Now they'll be able to take advantage of what Ys across New England have to offer. We're very excited to be able to bring this added benefit to members," said Gary Schuyler, President YMCA Southcoast. "We look forward to welcoming members from other Ys as we all stand together to strengthen our communities."

Through "My Y is Every Y", full facility/full privilege members will have access rights to all YMCAs in New England. Members should bring their YMCA ID card and a photo ID card to check into a partner Y. Some restrictions may apply depending on the YMCA, so members are encouraged to check with the Y they plan to visit ahead of time to learn the specifics.

YMCAs in Massachusetts and Rhode Island began "My Y is Every Y" in 2010 and with its success, the program expanded to all six states.

"The program was very successful in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, so we're pleased to be able to expand these benefits to members New England wide," said Lisa Drouin, Resource Director for YMCA of the USA. "No matter where our members travel in these states, they'll be able to stay connected to the local community and improve their health and well-being."

• Learn to Swim at the YMCA – YMCA SouthCoast reminds kids and adults about the importance of swim lessons, water safety and the health benefits of swimming

For kids and adults looking to escape the hot sun this summer, YMCA Southcoast invites you to come swim at the Y. At the Y, there are a variety of programs that help swimmers learn water safety skills, develop confidence in and around the water and enjoy the benefits of water exercise.

"Swimming is a fun and enjoyable activity for children and adults alike, and it has many health benefits," said George Morrison, Aquatic Director, New Bedford YMCA "The Y is committed to providing as many opportunities as possible for everyone to learn basic swimming lessons and water safety practices. We encourage kids and adults to take swim lessons – it's never too late to learn."

The Y encourages kids and adults to have fun when in and around the water, but to always make safety their first priority. The Y recommends the following safety tips for children and adults:

Only swim when and where there is lifeguard on duty – never swim alone. Adults should constantly watch children in and near the water. If multiple adults are in the vicinity, designate a "water watcher" so everyone knows who is "on duty." Inexperienced swimmers should

Rochester Country Fair Family Fun Day

This year's Rochester Country Fair will not be held at its previous location at Plumb Corner, but instead will be relocated to the Dexter Lane Recreation Park for a one day "Family Fun Day" Event. The town is very thankful to Gibbs V. Bray for use of the property at Plumb Corner for the past 11 Country Fair celebrations. Without his support, the Fair couldn't have grown to become such a popular community event.

During this transitional period, the Rochester Country Fair will hold a "Family Fun Day" on Sunday, August 21 at the Dexter Lane Recreation Park. A "1960-Something"-themed parade will kick off the event at 10:00 am, followed by live music by The Relics, a tractor show, town ball games, a vinyl record decorating contest, a Skip Daniels Magic Show sponsored by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a pie eating contest, sack races and other related children's events. The event will also feature the Magic Garden Chainsaw Artist to benefit Wellspring Farm and the Policeman's Brotherhood Golf Ball Drop. Come hungry – there will be plenty of food, demonstrators and craft vendors.

Visit www.RochesterMA.com for additional event information and updates.

These and up to 500 classes are available to Rochester library cardholders free of charge through our Universal Class link on our website. Have your library card in hand as you click on the link, set up an account, and then chose up to five classes to take on your own time. Communicate with the instructor and classmates via email. Books are recommended and may either be purchased or reserved through the library. If you'd like more information, ask at the desk, and we'll help you set up our account.

• Summer Reading Program 2011 – Registration for the 2011 Summer Reading Program starts June 18 for children ages 3 to 12. Time read can be tracked on our calendar reading logs, or online at www.readsinma.org/rochester. Tweens and Teens ages 9 to 16, and Adults ages 16 and up can also read to earn raffle tickets for weekly prize drawings. Weekly events begin on June 25 at 11:00 am with "Around the World with Magic" with magician Steve Rudolph, sponsored by the Friends of Plumb Library and the Rochester Cultural Council. A variety of programs have been planned for children and families; the complete list is available at the library or on our June newsletter through the library's webpage. Pre-registration is required for all programs, so sign up soon!

• Gifts to Give – Last year, knitters in the area created 185 scarves to send to soldiers in Afghanistan. This year's project is for children. Crafters can either knit a preemie cap to be donated to a local hospital, or a winter item (hat, scarf, or mittens) to donate to "Gifts to Give", who will then distribute them to area children in need. Patterns and some materials will be available at the desk. Please leave a name and contact information when you pick up directions. The deadline for all projects is November 18. Knit as many items as you wish. Some of the crafts are ideal for beginners. More materials will become available during the 6-month period of the project. For more information, or to donate money for supplies, please ask at the circulation desk.

Sippican Learning Center

Enlightening Adventures is being offered at the YMCA Sippican Learning Center at the Sippican Public School, 16 Spring St, Marion for children 2.9 to 6 years old. The Center has weekly themes to work around your vacations and your child's interest.

You don't have to sign up on a regular basis. You can sign up for a week or two or more. Hopefully this will help when the summer boredom hits or when both you and your child need a break from each other.

• June 27, Celebrate America – Everything will be Red, White and Blue. Come make decorations for the parade.

• July 5, Field Days – Children will win gold medals for participating in crazy races, gym activities, including yoga.

• July 11, Beach Ball Bonanza – The children will play beach ball bingo, have a sand castle contest, picnics, etc. Watch out for the ants!

• July 18, Camping – The children will be using tents and sleeping bags, playing with flashlights, making s'mores, hiking and singing camp songs.

• July 25, Mad Scientist – Get ready for erupting volcanos! The class will be doing experiments using a variety of gooey, oozing and slimy material. Careful not to get slimed!

• August 8, Amazing Adventures – The pirates will be looking for loot with a "real" ship. The class will become archeologists, go on scavenger hunts looking for buried treasure and learn a few magic tricks.

• August 15, Kings and Queens – The children will have a huge "castle" to play on, be visited by a real king, and have fun dressing up. The children will go through knight and princess training and then they will be knighted.

• August 22, Lazy, Hazy Summer Days – The children will make lemonade stands, have pretend barbeques and real picnics and delicious ice cream sundaes. This is a great way to end the summer.

Sessions cost: Five half days 8:30-12:30 – $145. Five full days (up to nine hours between 7:00 am and 5:30 pm) – $185. Register now – limited space is available. Call Sharon at 508-748-0651 or e-mail sfayette@YMCAsouthcoast.org.

I Found the Aardvark!

Each week, hidden somewhere in the pages of The Wanderer is a tiny drawing of an aardvark. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

Once you find the aardvark you can submit your answer online and if you are right you will get Aardvark Points! You can then use these points to get cool Aardvark Prizes!

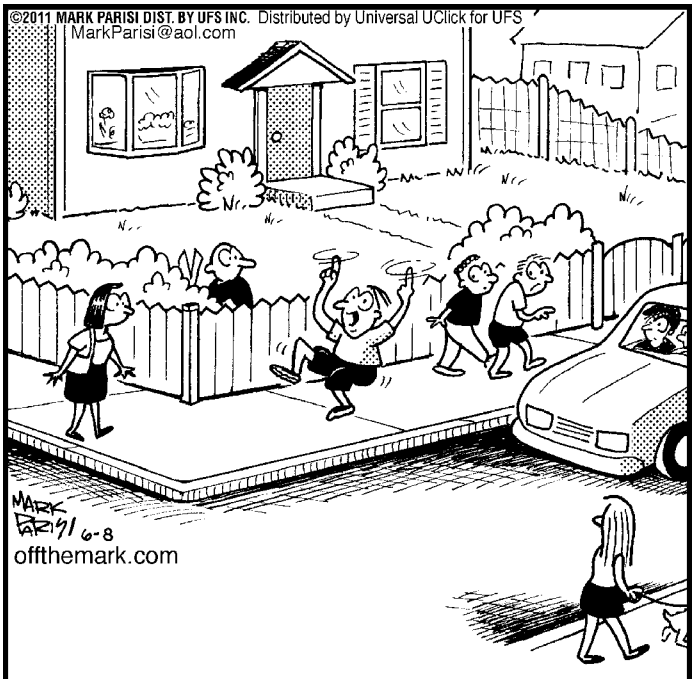

Each time you find the Aardvark you will also be entered in our monthly drawing for other cool Aardvark Prizes.

If you would like to enter the monthly drawing by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. Entries by mail will not be eligible for Aardvark Points.

To enter visit: www.wanderer.com and Click on "I Found the Aardvark"

In the June 2, 2011 issue the Aardvark was on page 80!
